

7th Grade Math Vocabulary Week 16

Across

- 1 The smallest solution that will satisfy an inequality.
- 3 Symbol $>$ that signifies that one end of an equation is greater than the other.
- 5 A character used to indicate a mathematical relation or operation.
- 8 A minimum possible number or value.

Down

- 2 A math sentence in which the expression on one side does not have to have the same value as the expression on the other side.
- 4 A maximum possible number or value.
- 6 The largest solution that will satisfy an inequality. The highest possible number.
- 7 Symbol $<$ that signifies that one end of an equation is less than the other.

Possible Answers:

at least, at most, greater than, inequality, less than, maximum, minimum, symbol