

Crisis Deepens Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 5 He beat A.P. Butler with a cane for making fun of his relative Charles Sumner.
- 6 Roamed the North looking for fugitive slaves and sometimes captured free African Americans.
- 7 In May of 1855, a proslavery mob attacked the town of Lawrence, Kansas.
- 9 A.P Butler was a Senator from this state.
- 11 Law that split the Nebraska Territory into Kansas and Nebraska and allowed people to vote on slavery in these territories.
- 12 Senator from Illinois who drafted the Kansas-Nebraska Act.
- 14 A Senator from Massachusetts that delivered a speech that made fun of A.P. Butler.
- 15 The name given to Kansas as a result of violent clashes between proslavery settlers and antislavery settlers.

Down

- 1 Charles Sumner was a Senator from this state.
- 2 Antislavery novel written by Harriet Beecher Stowe.
- 3 John Brown and seven other men murdered five proslavery settlers.
- 4 Author of the antislavery novel Uncle Tom's Cabin.
- 8 A system where residents vote to decide an issue like slavery.
- 10 Law that helped slaveholders recapture runaway slaves.
- 13 An extreme abolitionist.

Possible Answers:

Bleeding Kansas, Charles Sumner, Fugitive Slave Act, Harriet Beecher Stowe, John Brown, Kansas-Nebraska Act, Massachusetts, popular sovereignty, Pottawatomie Massacre, Preston Brooks, Sack of Lawrence, slave catchers, South Carolina, Stephen Douglas, Uncle Tom's Cabin